1. To update references, RAUS' attorneys met with Ernest C. RASKAUSKAS, HEINE's attorney, and with a federal district judge in Baltimore. Following this meeting RASKAUSKAS stated that he wanted HEINE to come to Washington for the deposition. (Prior to this meeting HEINE had replied to the invitation of RAUS' attorneys that he did not have the money to come to Washington, so RAUS' attorneys again invited him and told him that they would pay his transportation and per diem. HEINE has not as yet replied to this second offer. Additionally, RASKAUSKAS arranged for a postponement so that HEINE could appear anytime between 2 February and 1 March 1965. We do not know if RASKAUSKAS made these arrangements at the direction of the judge and/or in coordination with HEINE, or was acting entirely on his own. 2. A search of ODURGE records revealed HEINE's first visit to the United States recorded in their files was in 1961. However, HEINE stated in an interview with Canadian authorities that he had entered the United States at least once a year beginning in 1957. ODURGE, as well as KUBARK, will be interested in the results of the checks requested in DIR 77957.
